(208) 388-1264

Martha Turner has a need to make order out of chaos, which is particularly helpful in litigation. She has been litigating cases for over 25 years, 15 of those as a litigation attorney here in Boise.

Practice Areas

- Administrative and Regulatory Law
- Employment Law
- Environmental Law
- Healthcare
- Litigation
- Real Estate and Land Use

In the interests of work-family balance, she realized that she prefers using her extensive analytical, case management, and organizational skills as a paralegal. Over her career, she has taken responsibility for all phases of her cases, has experience in many types and sizes of matters, and excels at evaluating and synthesizing the factual aspects of her cases.

Ms. Turner is a Boise native and loves living in her home town, close to her family. She spends her free time with her husband and two dogs, teaching physical fitness classes, trail running, and working on stained glass projects in her studio. She and her husband are also avid scuba divers and have been diving all over the Caribbean and Hawaii.

Education

- B.A., History, Kenyon College
